

Pathways to Green Schools

A Program of Green.edu
Friday, October 29, 2010
7:30 am to 11:30 am
Hilton Stockton
2323 Grand Canal Boulevard

“Down Under” Scholarship Lunch follows at Outback Steakhouse

- 5:30–7:00 Exhibitor Set up
- 7:00–7:30 Registration / Visit Exhibits
- 7:30–7:45 Conference Welcome:
Susan Eggman, Stockton City Council Member
- 7:45–8:15 Keynote:
Dr. Mick Founts, Superintendent, San Joaquin County Office of Education
“San Joaquin County Leading the Valley in Green Schools Initiatives”;
- 8:15–9:30 Different Shades of Green:
SJCOE, Stockton Unified, Lodi Unified, Manteca Unified and other districts
- Panel discussions: Students and staff describe current exciting and successful green school programs at each district. Showcase green school efforts that engage classrooms, save money, and build relationships among schools, the community and local businesses.
- Q&A and attendee interaction time follows the presentations.
- 9:30–10:00 Exhibitors’ Showcase:
Meet members of the business community with existing school partnerships and partnership opportunities. Members of the BEA, REACON, etc., will have booths along the perimeter of the Hilton ballroom and be armed with information and ideas!
- 10:00–11:30 Preparing for Green Jobs, Now and in the Future:
Mike Locke, San Joaquin Partnership, EVI, University of Phoenix, Stockton Unified, SJCOE, Manteca Unified and others.
- Panel discussion: identify current and future local green sector career opportunities. Discover how schools and colleges are preparing students for these careers and for a sustainable future! Curriculum, internships, and post-secondary programs are among a number of emerging green programs and strategies.
- Q&A and attendee interaction time follows the presentations.
- 11:30–11:35 Event Wrap-Up:
Janice Oldemeyer, Chair Business Education Alliance
- 11:35–1:30 Outback Steakhouse for Down under Scholarship Luncheon
(Fundraiser for Scholarships to local colleges and universities)